Concerning Registrants and the Next Call

We are informed by Sheriff Comb of the local registration board that a registrant in class 1 will be called for physical examination beginning with Saturday, January 26, and it is hoped to be completed by Tuesday, January 29.

It is reported that some eight or ten registrants of this County failed to return any answers to their questionnaires, and such registrants are placed under the rules in class 1. It does not necessarily mean, and we sincerely hope in most cases it does not mean that all such are slackers in the true sense of the word, but that carelessly have neglected to inform the local board of changed addresses, or arrange for prompt forwarding of mail.

The following men have been mailed Questionnaires and have made no return to the local board. They should communicate with the local board at once: Grover Mills Zimmerman, Pinetop; Arthur Jasper Baker, Hollister; Arthur Theodore Newton, Melva.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors Forsyth Lodge No. 453 A. F. and A. M. for the untiring assistance given and sympathy expressed in the affliction and death of our dear husband and father, the late John H. Parrish.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to Springfield, Mo., friends for the beautiful floral offering.

B. Y. Everett Dead

Barton Yell Everett was born in Yellville, Ark., November 21, 1848, and died at his home north of Forsyth January 16, 1917. He had lived in Taney county over forty years. He married Ann Elizabeth Everett, May 29, 1881. She survives him, with seven of their children: John, Barton, James, Lincoln, Iva (Mrs. J. W. Morrow), Olive (Mrs. Orville Smith) and Drue (Mrs. Ernest Keithley).

Yes, this is winter, all right.

Mrs. Orville Smith of Western Oklahoma, arrived in Forsyth, Tuesday.

Meatless days and wheatless days are sure steps toward frightful days.

Mr. and Mrs. Link Everett went to Riverton, Kansas, Tuesday for a visit.

Chas. Hughes, pension examiner, came to town Monday on official business.

Judge Morrow of Dickens and B. J. Butler of Taneyville made a trip to the county seat Wednesday, on business.

J. W. Hughes of Springfield made a hurried business trip to Forsyth Wednesday, leaving for home again the same day.

Fred Biggs, a Taney county soldier from Camp Funston cantonment, came home Monday to leave Monday for a few days' visit.

T. D. Cummings of Reeds Spring was a caller at the Republican office Wednesday and added his name to our subscription list. Thanks.

Oto Wolf of Kisco Mills, was a pleasant caller at the Republican office Wednesday and we greatly appreciated his renewal for another year.

Rev. England, a Missionary Baptist minister, has been visiting friends in town for several days, and preached at the church Friday evening and Sunday morning.

Clarence Root of Springfield arrived in Forsyth Monday evening and left Wednesday morning for Chicago. Mr. Root has enlisted in the Quartermasters' reserve corps.

In the matter of food conservation do not mistake conservation for starvation. The Missouri Division of the United States Food Administration has asked you for the former to guard against the latter.

SCHOOL NOTES.

The cold and snow have not interfered with the school work to any great extent. The pupils have been doing good work and the attendance has been good. Only a very few are careless. No doubt these will receive encores.

The grade card for the second quarter will be given next Monday afternoon. Parents are asked to examine these very carefully, both as to regularity in attendance and as to the grade of work their pupils are doing. A grade of 70 or above means that the pupil has "passed" in that subject; below 70 is satisfactory at best. Below 70 means failure and no promotion. If pupils have been absent or tardy, we hope the parents know the reason. A new play "hooky."

Came to the Dramatic Contest at the High School Auditorium next Sunday night at 8 p. m. Four different schools have contestants in the event. Admission will be 10 and 15 cents.

Practice food conservation for the sake of your stomach, for the sake of your pocketbook, for the sake of your country, or for any other reason under the sun, but—BE SURE YOU DO IT.

Jesse Lambeth, formerly of this place, but now of Sapulpa, Okla., arrived in Forsyth Tuesday evening. Mr. Lambeth reports plenty of snow and cold in that part of Oklahoma. His son, Jack, who recently went to Sapulpa, remains there. Mr. Lambeth may decide to locate here again.

The people of Taney County will learn with regret of the death of Louis Huggins of St. Joseph, Mo. Mr. Huggins was one of the chief promoters of the School of the Ozarks, located so long at Forsyth. Many of the people knew Mr. Huggins personally, and he had endeared himself to the people of this community by his personality, and many acts for the betterment of his fellow men.

Letter From a Taneyite of Thirty Years Ago

San Antonio, Tex., 116-18.
Editor Taney County Republican:—

Enclosed you will find scraps of the Printing Building, White River, Swan Creek and the road up the hill.

I just returned on the first train from the North which was twenty-seven hours late on account of being tied up and froze up in snow drifts. Nine engines came to pull us out and the ninth one succeeded as all the others got out of commission. I was one of the lucky ones who had a reservation on Pullman. It took all the steam from the engines to keep this long train warm so that the people wouldn't perish from the tremendous storm. The trains represented trains No. 3, 5, 9 and 29, before we reached San Antonio, Texas, which represented four trains and crowded to capacity with baggage, express and passengers.

I found my trip back to that County to be very profitable, as I got a contract to furnish some large orders of the small mules we get here from Mexico, which will be handled through my cousin, R. C. Kisco, Live Stock dealer of Ozark, through the sales stables of J. C. Dysart Mule Co., of Springfield, Missouri.

This afternoon Mrs. Padgett had our car all readiness for a trip to the Kelly Aviation Fields where the Aeroplanes were very numerous in the air from fifty to five thousand feet, thirty to thirty-five in number. It can plainly be seen from observation that it will be only a short time until aeroplanes will be as practical as Ford automobiles. We visited the new Aviation Field that is under way and will be in operation in a short time.

The weather here is almost like summer making it good on our soldiers here in training camp activities.

Mrs. Padgett is very fond of reading the Taney County Republican, which we are subscribers of, and relishes it as quite a treat, and takes time to digest everything, and says that she is sure coming with me on the next trip to the old homestead on which we are anticipating a drive in our car next summer for a vacation.

With best regards to all friends and acquaintances,

CFO. M. PADGETT.

[We are very glad to hear from Mr. Padgett, and appreciate the pictures very much. Here is hoping Mr. Padgett gets the habit of visiting these great summer playgrounds.—Editor.]

BRADLEYVILLE.

A number of people from this place attended the sale a George Bray's last Thursday.

GARBER.

With the Mercury keeping down in the zero district and below, we are all freezing around the stoves, where there is someone who will cut wood enough to heat a stove. Fifteen to eighteen inches of snow covers the hills and it is difficult to get anywhere.

Men cannot haul ties on account of the danger on ice covered hills. The makers are not working as to fall a tree is only to lose sight of it, besides it is sold under foot. Sunday morning 14 below and Tuesday morning 10 below, with prospects of fair and warmer weather if it does not give us the daily all of snow. The bridge crews are tied up and put in some of time sweeping snow off the timbers only to have them all covered up again. Trains are running on a little better time than last week but are as yet behind. Many freight trains are running so that the freight traffic ought to soon be relieved.

Eton Froeberger came in Monday from St. Louis, Monday where he had been at a hospital with a broken finger. He reports little snow in the city or in Kansas City as he came through.

Mrs. Harry Cowley returned from a month's visit with friends at Cowgill, and Kansas City, Mo.

Miss Ethel Walden returned to Bergman, Ark., Monday after closing her school in the Irma district, and a visit with friends for a couple of weeks.

Thomas Walden of Bergman, Ark., came up Sunday evening on business concerning his farm land here. He reports about thirty inches of snow in Arkansas.

William Hale made a trip to Seymour last week to visit his sister, returning home Monday. He says he is ready for the examination.

Some trouble has been experienced in getting the questionnaires to registrants, as many of them have shifted around so much it is hard to find them. One instance of a removal from Oklahoma and the discontinuance of the Green Post Office causing the mail to lay at Branson for past the time when it should have been returned. Another registrant made out his papers and went home to await the return of a card, and being so far from the office, when the severe storm came, rested easy while his papers were returned to him.
